RUGBY REPORT 1973/1974

Senior Cup Team: I. Greaves, M. Loughrey, M. Lowe, H. Agnew (capt.), D. Hartford, W. Moffett, P. Wood, C. Johnston, J. Telford, K. Morris, D. Cowan, J. Leech, T. Faulkner, A. Latimer, M. Mehaffey, and S. Acheson.

This Senior team was the best senior team Masonic has produced for a long while. It also had the fullest season of any Senior team on record back to 1966, playing 30 matches. Masonic recorded 20 victories 9 defeats and 1 draw from these matches. With these figures it would only be fair to say that they had an excellent season. Top scorers for the team were the captain, Harold Agnew, with 209 points, mostly with his boot. Michael Lowe 116 points, and Malcom Loughrey 60 points.

This team progressed to the Pennant Competition in which they were beaten by 3 points.

Junior Cup Team: I. Curran, S. Thompson, R. Hutchinson, H. Hartford, M. Shaw, W. Getty, G. Cameron, R. Murray, A. Mains, J. McCreight, M. Kerr, J. Moore, D. Rodgers, and R. Neale.

This team also had a successful season winning 13 of the 22 matches which they played. They lost eight and the remaining game was a draw. This team was not a good cup team, in fact it was put out of the cup by St. Andrew's in the first round, but even so this was the best Junior team since that captained by Allen Mehaffey back in the '70-'71 season. Top scorers were: the captain, David Rodgers, 86 points, Rowley Hutchinson 62 points, and Harry Hartford 32 points.

Under 13: D. Taylor, M. Carswell, K. Patterson, N. Curran, S. Cinnamond, C. Shaw (capt.), N. Hillis, R. Jackson, B. Cameron, W. Stevenson, P. Dryden, P. Hughes, F. Neale, R. Cross, J. Mahon.

This XV had a poor season winning only 3 of their 13 matches and losing the remainder. At the end of the season they had only accumulated 48 points and had conceded 292 points. Top scorers were: C. N. Shaw, 20 points, Kenneth Patterson 16 points, and R. Jackson 8 points.

Under 12: J. Magowan, N. Hillis, N. Johnston, N. Curran, S. Cinnamond, D. Taylor (capt.), B. Shaw, S. Ross, F. Neale, B. Cameron, P. Hughes, R. Jackson, P. Newton, B. Cross, R. Percy, FRONT ROW : I. L. Greaves, S. M. Mehaffey, M. Lowe, H. W. Agnew (captain), J. R. Telford, D. N. D. Hartford, M. J. Loughrey.

This team had a very disappointing season, winning only one of their four matches. They had only 18 points to their credit at the end of the season. They conceded 58 points. Top scorers were : Bobby Cross 12 points, Stanley Cinnamon 4 points, and Roy Jackson 2 points. These, in fact, were the only scorers in the season.

This team hadn't a very good season. It lost both its matches. They gained 3 points, all of which were scored by Noel Kingston.

"The Senior Sevens"

H. Agnew (capt.), M. Lowe, M. Loughrey, P. Wood, A. Latimer, J. Telford, and M. Mehaffey.

This Seven-a-side made the greatest advance in the main Wanderers 7-a-side competition. Masonic advanced to the third round of the competition. They made 26 points in the competition and conceded 26 points. Top scorer was the captain, Harold Agnew, with 14 points. Michael Lowe scored 8 points and Mark Mehaffey scored the remaining 4 points. Michael Lowe, John Telford and Harold Agnew all played on the Leinster trials. (J. Telford was picked as a substitute to travel with the Leinster team.)

DRAMATIC SOCIETY REPORT

The Dramatic Society had another successful session last year. The highlight of the year was, as usual, the annual Christmas production. There were three plays produced: one by Sixth and Fifth years, written by M. Curry, J. Telford and J. Carswell, one by Fourth year, written by J. Moore and H. Hartford, and one by Third year, written by R. Marshall, I. Curran and J. Mahon. P. Wood and C. Breen also produced a few short sketches. P. Wood was master of ceremonies.

The members of the Society are indebted to Dr. Risk who, as President of the society, took a keen interest in the productions. We are also indebted to Mr. Farrell who gave up much of his free time to act as chairman of the society. He
